

4RK9S presents:

Introduction to Nose Games Seminar

When: July 7, 2013 10:00 - 3:00

Fee: Working: $50 (includes nosework supplies and lunch)

Audit: $25 (includes nosework supplies and lunch)

Where: 4RK9S

910 2nd Ave SW, Cedar Rapids, IA 52404

Presenter: Rebecca Gilchrist

- Learn about the new and fast growing sport of Canine Nosework!
- Learn about the titling organizations and the new UKC titles!
- This seminar will focus on how to get started and how to train.

Featuring:

- A brief overview of the history of the sport,
- Basic information on what the sport is and what types of searches are done
- Information on the titling organizations
- Information on the rules for competition
- Introduction to training basics and methods.
- The chance to view a variety of videos showing dogs doing nosework

And even more:

- Introduce your dog to the sport and work exercises introducing the first odor (birch)
- Receive supplies to get you started
- Receive and review a training plan, including next steps for training to pass the first odor recognition test

Limited to 12 working spots and 12 audit spots

If the seminar fills, a “wait list” will be maintained

Introduction to Nose Games Seminar

July 7, 2013

Yes, I want to attend this seminar!

Name: _____

E-mail address: _____

Telephone #: _____

Enclosed is my fee ($50, working or $25 audit) Please make checks payable to 4RK9S

If there is no working spot available, I am willing to take an audit spot. Yes: _____ No: _____

Please send this registration form and your fee to:

Beth Haley
1640 Park Ave SE
Cedar Rapids, IA 52403

Questions? Contact:

Beth Haley at bethhaley@aol.com